DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The Examiner acknowledges Applicant's submission on 7/6/05, wherein claims 1, 9 and 10 were amended to better specify the present invention and claim 8 was cancelled. Claims 1-7 and 9-10 are allowable.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 7/6/05 have been fully considered. Applicant's arguments with respect to Allison not disclosing a layer-count acquiring means have been fully considered and are persuasive. Allison discloses a display layout of hierarchical arrays that are like the hierarchical arrays taught in the present claims, but Allison does not further teach a layer count acquiring means for acquiring the number of hierarchical layers to be displayed. Therefore, the rejection of claims 1-7 and 9-10 has been withdrawn.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-7 and 9-10 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to independent claims 1 and 9-10, Allison discloses the icon layout, wherein a hierarchical array method is used for displaying the icons, and wherein user selection of these icons allows for the arrays to be displayed varying from one level to another. The independent claims have been further amended with a customization feature that allows for a layer count acquiring means for determining the number of hierarchical layers to be displayed. The prior art deals with the display and manipulation of the icons and the hierarchical levels that are being displayed but does allow for a customization process for acquiring the layer count of the hierarchical levels that are to be displayed. Proper motivation cannot also be determined for a combination of such a customization process of a layer count acquiring means with the detailed hierarchical description provided in these present claims.

Since claims 2-7 depend on claim 1 and include all of the limitations of these claims, claims 2-7 are considered allowable for the reasons in which claim 1 is allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance".
